

SWITZERLAND – La Garenne International School

Teacher of Humanities (50% to 100%): Key Stage 3

La Garenne International School invites applications for the position of KS3 Humanities Teacher to join our team from January 2019. Applicants should be enthusiastic international educators who are keen to be part of our close-knit school community. There is a possibility of extending to 100% to a suitable candidate who can also teach English As a second Language (EAL).

La Garenne International School, with 110 international students aged from 4-15, is situated in the popular Swiss ski resort of Villars. We offer small class sizes and a genuine family atmosphere. Years 7 to 10 follow the International Middle Years Curriculum (IMYC), based on key elements of a variety of international curricula, including the English Key Stage 3.

Beyond the academic programme, we offer a truly holistic education making full use of our outstanding local environment. Our stunning Alpine setting provides abundant opportunities for outdoor learning and extra-curricular activities. For further details about the school, please visit our website at www.la-garenne.ch

Ideally, candidates should have a minimum of two years experience, a British teaching qualification or equivalent and knowledge and experience of the English National Curriculum. They should be passionate, inspirational teachers who are able to work independently and liaise effectively with colleagues.

Interested candidates should apply by e-mail, including a letter of application, a copy of your passport and a current C.V., with the names of at least two referees, including your current or most recent employer.

The closing date for applications is Friday 11th January 2019. Final interviews will take place at the school.
